You can use two rounding algorithms for 'Update Price' and 'Update Special Price' actions. If you indicate 0.99 in this field, updated prices will be rounded to n.99, for example 3.57 and 8.32 will be rounded to 3.99 and 8.99 respectively. If you specify 0.5 here, prices will be rounded to n.50, so 3.57 and 8.32 would become 3.50 and 8.50.

For categories-related actions you can either display the drop-down tree of categories or a text field for entering category ids (id option could work better for catalogs with very large number of categories; also with this option you can remove/assign products to several categories at once, with dropdown – only one category at a time).

In this field you can specify the attribute you want to copy for a certain product (for instance, description). Found out how you can copy attributes on the page 6.

There are also settings for 'Relate', 'Up-sell' and 'Cross-sell' actions, which allow you to choose linking algorithms for these actions. There are three possible algorithms: Default, 2 Way and Multi Way:

1. 'Default' means, that relations between products will be built by the standard magento functionality (that is when you have to manually indicate related, up-sell and cross-sell items for each product).

2. '2 Way' algorithm. For example you have 'product 1', 'product 2' and 'product 3'. If you add 'product 2' and 'product 3' as up-sells (or related/cross-sells) for 'product 1', only 'product 1' will become an up-sell (or related/cross-sell) for 'product 2' and 'product 3'. 'product 3' will not become an up-sell (or related/cross-sell) for 'product 2' and 'product 2' will not become an up-sell (or related/cross-sell) for 'product 3'.

3. 'Multi Way' algorithm. Let's say you have soap, shampoo and toothpaste. If you add shampoo and toothpaste as related (or up-sells/cross-sells) to soap, all these products will become related to each other – soap and shampoo will become related (or up-sells/cross sells) to toothpaste; toothpaste and soap will become related (or up-sells/cross sells) to shampoo.

'Update Special Price' action works on analogy. Please be careful with price operations, as there's no way to revert them, unless you have a backup. Therefore we recommend to create a backup of your site database before doing major price modifications.
